Everything we do is thanks to you

The museums are places of discovery, creativity, joy and wonder – and that's thanks to your generosity.

With your support, we're able to send visitors on journeys of discovery that last a lifetime and supercharge the learning of the thousands of school children who visit us each year. The donations you make help safeguard the city's rich heritage, celebrate Sheffield's remarkable creative talents and bring the best in art and design to people, right here on their doorstep.

Thank you.

When the Day is Done: New Paintings by Ryan Mosley

26 Feb – 4 Jul 2026
Graves Gallery
Free Entry | Please Donate £5

Ryan Mosley's paintings create characters that reflect our need to connect with each other and the landscape around us. From musicians in night clubs to individuals dwarfed by the enormity of the natural world, they explore the human condition through his painter's lens.

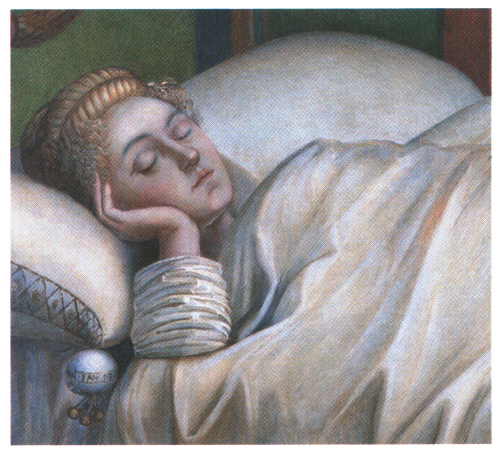
Queer Legacies in Sheffield's Art Collection

From 26 Feb 2026
Graves Gallery
Free Entry | Please Donate £5

This new exhibition brings together historic and contemporary artworks from Sheffield's collection to examine how LGBTQ+ expression is woven throughout the history of art. Uncover powerful hidden or unexplored Queer stories from across the collection and how they speak to our lives today.

Angelo Alessandri, after Vittore Carpaccio, 'The Head of St Ursula', detail from 'The Dream of St Ursula', 1892. Collection of the Guild of St George.



Storm-Cloud: The Look of the Sky

Now showing at the Millennium Gallery

In 1884, John Ruskin delivered one of the first lectures to discuss climate change and make a link to industrial pollution. Storm-Cloud brings together work from the Guild of St George's Ruskin Collection curated by our Saturday Art Club, video work by Jake Goodall and research by the University of Sheffield to explore the legacy of Ruskin's groundbreaking observations.

School holidays – we're here for you!

Across the museums, you'll find a host of family fun during half term and the Sheffield Easter break. Drop in to our creative sessions running 12 – 3pm on:

Tue	Weston Park Museum
Wed	Millennium Gallery
Thu	Kelham Island Museum

Plus, look out for our Abbeydale reopening celebration in March, more info coming soon!

There's no need to book – please donate £3. Your donation could help keep these sessions available for everyone, ensuring all families have the chance to connect, play and discover together.

Termtime for tots
Our littlest visitors can also enjoy our hands-on termtime sessions: Fridays Under 5s weekly at Weston Park Museum and Art at the Start monthly at the Millennium Gallery.
